

ISHR 2024: Continuity and Change in the History of Rhetoric

Tuesday, 23 July: Arrival Day (Welcome + First Plenary + Reception)

Time	Location	Event
Noon-5pm		Registration open
1-3		Council Meeting (officers and council members only)
3:15-4		Welcome
4-5		First Plenary
5-7		Reception

Wednesday, 24 July: Day One (Panels + Second Plenary)

Registration will be open here from x to y.

Time	Location	Event
9-11		18-19 th -Century British Rhetoric & Rhetoricians
		Form & Strategy in Theological Writings
		Tropes/Figures/Meaning
		Directing Attention & Action: Panegyrics & Historiography in Imperial Rome
		Comparing (& Contrasting) and Making (& Unmaking) Rhetorical Traditions
		Scrutinizing 5 th -Century BCE Greek Rhetoric
		Early Modern Italian Rhetoric
		Rhetorical Concepts in & through Time
		Scare Rhetoric & the Discourse of Fear in Athenian Oratory
		Conservative Rhetoric and the Defenses of Hierarchy
11:05-11:25		coffee
11:30-1		Utopian and Dystopian Propagandistic Impulses in 20 th -21 st century Civic, National, and Cultural Contexts
		Cicero as Translator
		Rhetoric in Hannah Arendt & Walter Benjamin

		Democratic Sounds & Speeches in 19 th -20 th - century United States
		Rhetorical Appeals, Feminism, and Justice
		Aristotle in Early Modern London, Longinus in Early Modern Rome
		Plato and Fourier, Popper, & Podcasts
		Extending Rhetorical Listening Through Rhetorical Education
		The Rhetorical Power of Sexed & Gendered Bodies
1:05-2:20		lunch
2:30-4:30		Jesuits & the Teaching of Rhetoric
		History of Rhetoric in Korea: Continuity and Change
		Chaim Perelman, Lucie Olbrechts-Tyteca, & the New Rhetoric Project
		Rabelais et la Rhétorique
		Reconsidering the Sophists
		Musica Poetica
		Middle & Late Byzantine Rhetoric
		Ancient Athenian Funeral Oration (& Its Reception)
		Continuities and Discontinuities: Kenneth Burke and the Rhetorical Tradition
		Ēthos & Habitus through Time
4:35-4:55		coffee
5-6		Second Plenary

Thursday, 25 July: Day Two (Panels + Third Plenary)

Registration will be open here from x to y.

Time	Location	Event
9-10am		Third Plenary
10:05-10:25		coffee

10:30-12		Continuity and change in late-antique rhetorical theory and practice: fiction and rhetoric in dialogue
		Rhetoric in Early 20th-century Korean History
		"Modern" Rhetoric Redefined
		Erasmus – Luther – Melanchthon – Bruno: Changes and continuities in the concepts of rhetoric and dialectic at the time of the sixteenth century Reformation
		Emphases & Absences in Plato & Xenophon
		Rhetoric and Theriophily: Speaking Animals Across Cultures
		The Politics of Cicero
		African & African American Activism in the 20 th Century
		The Work of Isocrates's Logoi Politikoi
12:05-1:20		lunch
1:30-3:30		Jesuit Rhetoric: Revivals, Revisions, & Reconstructions
		A Protean Tradition: Continuity and Change in the History of Sophistic Rhetoric
		African Rhetorics and the (Im)possibility of a Global Comparative Rhetoric
		New Approaches to the Corpus Hermogenianum in Byzantium (11th and 12th century)
		Rhetoric in & Rhetorics of 17 th -century England and Germany
		The Rhetorical Business of Constituting
		Isocrates, Education, & Tradition
		Conceptions, Conventions, & Classifications of Argument
		Making a Mark in the Middle Ages
3:35-3:55		coffee
4-5:30		Continuity and Change: Chinese Rhetoric across Times and Settings
		Remembering the Work of Marc van der Poel
		Thinking of Rhetoric Globally: Cross-Cultural Ways of Doing Language

		Rhetoric, Politics, and Aesthetics in the Work of Jacques Rancière
		Kenneth Burke + Wayne Booth + Paul de Man
		Rhetorics of Development, Conservation, & Judgment in the United States
		19 th -Century U.S. American Rhetorics of Hegemony
		Rhetoric Beyond Oratory in 5 th -Century BCE Athens
		Speechcraft in Early Imperial Roman History & Tragedy

Friday, 26 July: Day Three, Final Day (Panels + Fourth and Fifth Plenaries + Business Meeting)

Time	Location	Event
9-10		Fourth Plenary
10:05-10:25		coffee
10:30-12:30		Remembering & Refiguring World War II
		Progymnasmata
		Papers on Medieval Rhetoric in Memory of John O. Ward
		Akkadian, Buddhist, & Hindu Rhetorics
		Protest & Resistance as Rhetorical Forms
		21 st -century Populist & Presidential Rhetoric: A Multi-Continent Perspective
		Analyzing & Translating Terms & Tones
		Self-Praise, Status Theory, & Memory: Cicero in Comparison
		What's Said & Unsaid in Ancient Athenian Oratory
12:35-1:45		lunch
2-4		Stretching the Rhetorical Periods: From Old to New and New to Old
		What Do Women Know? Gendered Knowledge and Its Rhetorical Representations in Classical Athens
		Cicero on/& Roman Historiography
		Toward a New History of Rhetoric: The Norton Anthology of Rhetoric and Writing

		Rhetorical Features of Thucydides
		Greek Rhetoric Before, Under, & Beyond Rome
		The Translation & Reception of Aristotle
		Rhetoric, Literature, Poetry
		Early Modern Rhetoric & Hermeneutics
4:05-4:25		coffee
4:30-5:15		Final Plenary: Hanne Roer
5:15-6		ISHR Business Meeting (all welcome)